Detailed records of all reports and investigations have to be preserved to ensure traceability. It is also required to the evaluation committee to review and update the complaint policy and procedure.

Any whistleblower who feels victimized may report their complaint(s) to the evaluation committee. This is understood without prejudice to the fundamental right of the complainant to go to the justice court.

The Plus Felt policy is to manage the investigations immediately and as fairly as possible. However, a specific time frame for the investigation conclusion cannot be established, due to the diverse nature of potential irregularities that may occur. The investigator will endeavor to resolve all irregularities within a period of four weeks. If for some reason, the resolution cannot be achieved within this frame time, the investigator will request assistance to the H&S department (external company).

WHISTBLOWER POLICY AND PROCEDURE

WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION

It has to be Plus Felt's policy to protect whistleblowers from irregularities, provided the complaint is made

- under the reasonable belief that there are misconduct intentions;
- to an appropriate person or authority; and
- a una persona o autoridad apropiada; y
- in good faith, without malice.

All the resulting disclosures from the whistleblower process should be treated with a high confidentiality level, so the staff and other relevant stakeholders are encouraged to disclose their name to make the report more credible.

On no account retaliatory actions will be taken against whistleblowers who have denounced an irregularity in good faith. This guarantee has to be clearly communicated to all employees to build confidence in the procedure.

TRAINING

The whistleblower procedure has to be accessible to all the people who integrate the Plus Felt team and to other important stakeholders like customers, suppliers, etc.

A training to all Plus Felt workers is done in order to explain how to use and to indicate how they can access it. Likewise, in this training, employees must be informed that under no circumstances retaliatory actions will be taken against whistleblowers who have denounced an irregularity in good faith.
